Once A Spartan . . .

by Mary Seamans

A tribute to our greatness resounding loud and clear
It claims and reclaims our glory started that First year.

“All Hail thee Mighty Spartans”

Like our namesake warriors who were disciplined and brave
We earn our fame and distinction by every road we pave.

“Together we will stand”

In words, which are familiar, we’ve all become defined
Along the paths we’ve chosen is how we are aligned

“We’ll show our pride and spirit”

Yes, we wear red, black and silver because we can be proud
And in enthusiastic loyalty, our voices ring out loud

“For all throughout the land”

Forty-eight years of merit denotes just who we are
Our loyal bonds of kinship are known both near and far.

“With hopes to last forever”

Although nothing lasts forever like the time spent at the “Ridge”
The memories live within us when crossing that next bridge.

“As many years go by”

Years come and go but upon our deep reflection
The faces from the past we remember with affection

“We’ll be forever faithful”

These words still hold their meaning which time cannot erase
Although some pioneers have gone and others claimed their place

“All hail to Southridge High”

And hail to you mighty Spartans both now and in the past
The once formed ties of family forever seem to last
The banners of our colors keep flying straight and tall
And send out searching tentacles which bind us one to all
In the halls of Southridge High School you always want to be
For a Spartan once and always is true for you and me.

SOUTHRIDGE ALMA MATER

All hail thee Mighty Spartans,
Together we will stand;
We show our pride and spirit,
For all throughout the land.

With hopes to last forever,
As many years go by;
We'll be forever faithful,
All hail to Southridge High

To the Class of 2024,

Spartans, we are so proud of your accomplishments over the past four years. When faced with an unprecedented, life changing event, you fought, you adapted, and you succeeded. You did not give up; you rose to the challenge and you persevered.

The experiences you endured over the past few years will make you stronger and more resilient. It will make you more appreciative of life and cherish moments with friends and family that you once took for granted. It will teach you that sometimes the best laid plans do not always work out and you must adjust and adapt to get back on that path that leads you to your goal.

Class of 2024 Spartans, may your years ahead be characterized by perseverance, fearlessness, compassion, objectivity, and a willingness to take risks.

We wish you all great success and happiness as you continue your journey, your best days are ahead of you!

Good luck and always remember, Go Spartans!

With Love,

Your Spartan Administrators, Teachers and Staff

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Lending color to the pageantry of our Graduation Ceremony are the academic robes and hoods worn by the faculty and special guests. This regalia reaches back into the medieval ages when it served a functional, as well as ornamental role, separating the learned men from other groups and offering warmth and protection.

In America in the late nineteenth century, a conference was held by representatives of colleges and universities to bring some order and system to the custom of academic dress. Since then, there have been periodical conferences to revise or reconfirm existing practices.

Essentially, holders of the bachelor’s degree wear black robes unadorned. Holders of the master’s degree wear hoods which are lined with the colors of the college conferring the degree and trimmed with the color representing the subject in which the degree was earned. The doctoral robe is adorned with velvet and is also worn with the hood and suitably ornamented.

Holders of degrees from foreign universities or religious orders wear the entire academic costume as decreed by the conferring institution.
